

Join Deloitte Webcast Understanding the home-office perspective

Dear partners,

In response to the uncertainty, presented by COVID-19, many organizations asked their employees to work from home. The magnitude of home-office work, we are observing today, is without precedent. While this is a reasonable and sensible approach, it brings challenges in managing remote employees and their productivity.

Deloitte Bulgaria has the pleasure to invite you to its sixth COVID-19-related webcast on the topic: "Understanding the home-office perspective" during which we will summarize the main challenges and share their solutions.

What will be in focus?

- Challenges while managing people working from home
- How to enable efficient communication
- How to manage and monitor your team

You will also be able to become acquainted to the Deloitte Automatic Process Analysis Tool (APAT) and to discuss all the relevant questions for you with the professionals of Deloitte Bulgaria and Deloitte Czech Republic.

Who is the webinar for?

- CEOs
- Banking and insurance professionals
- HR specialists
- Shared service centres

When will the webinar be held?

The webinar will be held on 28 April (Tuesday) from 15:00 to 15:40 h. Each registered participant will receive a link to access the webinar.

What will be the working language?
