‘the wine is a way of living, a way of thinking.
therefore, it is quite natural to give it a central role during an event where people can make useful contacts.

THE TRADITION

Beaujolais Nouveau is celebrated in 110 countries around the world. The Beaujolais wine takes its name from the historical Province of Beaujolais, the wine producing region to the north of Lyon. The wine is made in the northern part of the Rhône department and southern area of the Saône-et-Loire department which is in the region of Burgundy. It is made from handpicked Gamay grapes.
