TENNIS TOURNAMENT "PEUGEOT 2022"

For 21-st year, PEUGEOT is organizing the largest amateur mixed doubles tennis tournament in Bulgaria.

The Peugeot 2022 tournament, organized for another year, will be held on May 14 and 15, 2022 on the courts of "Levski Tennis Club" in Sofia.

Any interested amateur tennis player who meets the conditions of the competition regulations can register for the tournament organized by Sofia France Auto. The event will be held in the irrevocable spirit of friendship, and positive emotions will fill the weekend. Each couple will have the opportunity to compete with other amateur tennis players and have fun on the road to victory and the grand prize.

Partners of the event in this year's edition are "BNP PARIBAS" and "Zagorka". The main judge of the tournament will be the well known Maria Radenkova.

The deadline for registration for all those wishing to participate is May 10.

Registration for the tournament can be easily done online, with a payment option by card or a bank transfer.

The fee for a couple is BGN 30. It includes food and drinks for the participants, as well as a T-shirt with the logo of the tournament, as a souvenir of an unforgettable experience.

At the event, participants and visitors will have the opportunity to see and touch the latest addition to the brand's range - the New 308. The model is the first with the new Peugeot logo and embodies the idea of future technological, stylistic and design development of the French lion.
